Overview

Samurai One is the flagship super yacht from the Spanish shipyard Astondoa. A project custom made for its owner, Samurai One is considered the finest yacht ever built in Spain as it combines great length and interior design, by Cristiano Gatto Design Team, with elegance and quality. Aluminum and steel construction gives unique strength and character to all guests on board with full safety and comfort. This Astondoa offers a large interior and outdoor volume with a sun-deck equipped with Jacuzzi, large dining table, wet-bar and sunbathing area. The audio-visual equipment is by Bang & Olufsen and we have to point out its particular interior design made with the best materials available. Samurai One is in perfect conditions and always very well maintained by it's professional crew. In 2011 she underwent to a refit where they painted the hull and superstructure, re-decorated all interior and added the latest on electronics, systems on board and audio-visuals. Very successful charter yacht!
